RED RICE'S AS A SHOW PLACE.
The largest furniture dealer in the city outside of Red Rice's, after going through the different departments, taking in the wonderful suggestions of the young couple who have charge of the business, said he should advise us to charge an admission fee; that it was worth more to go through the house than to pay the admission. We say we have not concluded to take advantage of his suggestion. No, the admission is free to Red Rice's. You can go through the house without Red Rice's, even though you don't want to buy. Moral: Visit RED RICE'S, 143 and 145 South Main street.

gramma was not begun promptly at the appointed hour. When finally the train had started, the already very large audience joined in singing our national hymn, "America," led by Miss Osborne, followed by Rev. Parkhill of the Presbyterian Church. The band now arrived at the Tabernacle, escorting a large crowd from the train, who filed in, filling every available building to overflowing; in fact a large number were unable to find even standing room in the vast auditorium.

Miss Osborne then favored the audience with the "Star-spangled Banner" in her most effective manner, the people joining in.

Col. Copeland was then introduced and spoke on the subject above indicated for an hour and three-quarters, to one of the largest audiences ever assembled at Long Beach. In the hottest part of the day, when everybody was hungry and still they hung on to the last word, and when given interest to the end. Some of his flights of oratory were grand, some of his descriptions exceedingly beautiful.

The address contained many gems of wit, and many passages of genuine pathos, and Col. Copeland made himself more popular, if that were possible, by his effort on this occasion.

Immediately after this address many enthusiastic Nationalists who preferred to serve their cause than go to dinner—which is a mere matter of imagination at best—retired to listen to an address by Rev. R. M. Barnes, of the First Congregational Church of Long Beach. His exposition of the principles of Nationalism was clear and convincing.

Mr. Owen was introduced and made some very appropriate remarks on monopolies and freedom. The following speakers followed him: Mr. Smith, the State organizer, Col. F. A. Atwater, Mrs. W. W. Alex, Ralph E. Hoyt, H. G. Wilshire, each made interesting and telling addresses.

At 3 o'clock a large assembly gathered to continue the work of the temperance convention.

In the evening Col. Bain made another of his masterly addresses.

The 4th at Long Beach was a grand day—one to be long remembered by all who were there.

AT DOWNEY.

The Largest Gathering in the History of the Town.

There was the largest gathering of the citizens living in the neighbourhood of Downey at the celebration that was ever gathered before. Hundreds of vehicles from all directions came into this thriving town—the center of the rich valley—bringing the large number that participated in the festivities. The town was gaily decorated, and elaborate preparations had been made by the committee for the occasion, a procession, literary and musical exercises were given in the hall and tomorrow evening, Los Angeles society people who are here and will take part in the gayeties of the hour and trip the light fantastic are R. H. Widmer and wife, Miss Dunn, H. J. Widmer, Judge A. M. Stephens, G. T. Sutton of San Francisco, Miss Carrie Carran, T. J. Hannan, Shirley C. Ward, J. S. Ward and wife, A. W. The swimming race, from the beach to the float and return—First prize, C. G. Strayer, in 5½ minutes; second prize, B. G. Bain, in 6 minutes.

A GREAT PREMIUM.

A complete five-dollar atlas of the world free! This is what the Times-Mirror Company offers to every person sending one year's cash subscription to THE DAILY TIMES—$10 in the city or $9 by mail. The same offer is made for five subscriptions to the WEEKLY MIRROR and $10 in cash. When the atlas is sent by mail the postage is added. This atlas will be specially published upon the order of this company, by the great publishing-house of Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago, and will be uniform with the standard atlas published by them, except that it will contain a double-page map of California and bear upon its title page the legend: "THE LOS ANGELES TIMES ATLAS OF THE WORLD." We offer it as the most costly and valuable premium ever given for a single newspaper subscription. This great premium will be ready for delivery to our patrons on or about August 1st. A sample copy is now on exhibition at the counting-room.

THE FOURTH OF JULY must be a day of terror to the fire insurance companies.

IT is now said that Vanderbilt is after the Santa Fé system. Capitalists evidently see a big future for railroads which run to the Pacific Coast.

In our Pasadena column Col. Markham talks about his trip to Washington. He met with much encouragement in Soldiers' Home affairs.

THE ARIZONA delegation, in the procession, acquitted themselves remarkably well. They made a decided hit, especially the leader on the untrified bovine steed.

"J. M. S." writes a very uncomplimentary letter from Los Angeles to the Tacoma Globe about this section. His grievance appears to be that he started a country paper at Santa Paula, in Ventura county, and failed.

THE CELEBRATION went off yesterday in a highly pleasant and satisfactory manner. The weather, though a little warm, was charming. The procession, literary exercises and fireworks attracted large crowds of interested spectators. No accidents of importance are reported, and, altogether, we may congratulate ourselves upon the day's doings.

THE EXHIBIT of "California on Wheels" appears to be doing excellent work in the East. The superintendent writes from Milwaukee to the San José Mercury that, in many places from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. the cars are crowded with people, anxious for knowledge of California and her products. The literature distributed is eagerly sought for. It is pleasing to learn that Los Angeles is at present the best advertised county in the exhibit. We must keep in the lead.

A CORRESPONDENT has been writing to the New York Tribune to ask why the New York papers did not more fully report the remarkable sermons of Sam Jones, recently delivered in Richmond. The Tribune gives the following quotation from one of those sermons as the best answer to that question:

The bon ton lady sits back and turns up her nose at what I say, but the devil has a mortgage on that old nose, and the foreclosures will soon come, and the old gal will go along with her nose.

As the Tribune very truly says, it doesn't pay to telegraph such vulgarity.

MR. I. W. HELLMAN, who is here from San Francisco on a visit, expresses the belief that the true way to build up this section is to get all that possible out of the land; that such improvement will soon begin to reach over the city and then a new era of great prosperity will be here to stay. Mr. Hellman is undoubtedly correct. During the boom the city grew ahead of the country, and we have been suffering in consequence. We must now see that the country is developed and then Los Angeles will take a fresh start, on a healthy, solid basis. Much is being done in this direction, but there is still room for a vast amount of improvement on the uncultivated acres in the immediate vicinity of the city.

THE GUBERNATORIAL SITUATION —VIGILANCE NEEDED.

We referred yesterday to the importance of care and concert of action in the selection of delegates at the primary election on Saturday. These delegates will, in county convention, elect delegates to the State Convention to be held on August 12th.

We reiterate the need of care in choosing men who will send delegates to Sacramento free to vote for Col. Markham for Governor. This is a more important matter than may appear on the surface. It is not so much a question of Col. Markham against some other Republican aspirant for Governor, as of whether we shall have a Governor from Southern California or from the north. Col. Markham is undoubtedly far in the lead in this section as a gubernatorial aspirant. In fact, the opposition to him is merely nominal. His friends will surely stand by him to the end. Thus, all that the small minority against him in this section can hope to accomplish is to split the southern vote and give the north an opportunity to rush forward a candidate of its own, under the plea that we are not united—that we do not know our own minds. At present the northern portion of the State is very friendly to Col. Markham. He has a large number of influential and active supporters up there. There is, therefore, little doubt that, provided we of the south are united, we can nominate and elect a Southern California Governor.

Under these circumstances, those of our citizens who are not disposed to favor Col. Markham particularly should seriously consider whether they ought not to drop their personal predilections and work heartily for the good of the section. As it looks now, it is a clear case of Markham for Governor or a northern man.

A GREAT PAPER.

One of the most marked features of journalism in this country, during the past decade, has been the growth of western newspapers. There are now several papers published in Chicago and St. Louis, and even San Francisco, which compare favorably with anything that New York can show.

That great paper, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat—an excellent exponent of western journalism—has issued a circular, in which, with pardonable pride, it compares the contents of one of its recent Sunday issues with those of New York journals published on the same day. The result is very much in favor of the Globe-Democrat. It shows that it led the New York papers in size, having 238 columns against 140 to 238 of them.

In advertising matter it leads all except the World, and in special articles it was easily ahead of all of them. In its telegraphic department the Globe-Democrat is far ahead of its New York contemporaries, having, in the issue referred to, no less than thirty-seven and three-fourths columns, which was equal to that of the World, Herald and Tribune combined. In regard to the relative cost of its telegraphic service, the Globe-Democrat republishes from an article in the June Century the following statement, showing the monthly special telegraphic expenses of fourteen leading journals. This statement will give our readers some little idea of the cost attending the publication of a great paper:

Atlanta Constitution	$ 1,100
Boston Herald	5,500
Chicago Herald	6,000
Chicago Tribune	4,500
Cincinnati Commercial Gazette	5,000
Cincinnati Enquirer	4,750
Kansas City Journal	1,050
Minneapolis Tribune	3,000
New York World	9,514
Philadelphia Press	3,000
San Francisco Call	3,500
San Francisco Examiner	5,000
St. Louis Globe-Democrat	11,660
St. Louis Republic	5,300

THE EXAMPLE OF RIVERSIDE.

Riverside is a remarkable instance of the success attending intelligent fruit culture, under proper conditions, in this section. It has attracted the attention of our friends up north, and the Oakland Enquirer devotes considerable space to the subject. The Enquirer says:

Beginning with 1880-'81, when the crop shipped was only fifteen carloads, it has increased rapidly till last year there were 928 carloads, and this year about 1500, amounting to 430,000 boxes. The value of the crop is not less than one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The areas planted to oranges are six thousand and at least one thousand acres have been planted this year. Much of this orchard is still to come in bearing, a good portion of it having its first heavy crop now on.

The output next year will be two thousand to twenty-five hundred boxes, and will be sold at from two to two thousand dollars.

As there are only six thousand people in the place, or something over one thousand families, cultivating in all six thousand acres of land, the significance of these figures is apparent. The crop sells for three hundred to seven hundred and fifty cents per box, on the tree.

There are also a profitable market at Riverside close on to two million dollars.

THE TIMES IN PASADENA.

The advantage to residents of Pasadena in buying THE TIMES consists in the fact that they not only get in its columns the news of their own city every day, but also the news of Los Angeles, of the State, the Coast, the East and the world.

The paper is served regularly by carrier, at an early hour every morning, to the residences and business places of citizens, at the same price charged in Los Angeles.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

THE Cross road raked in the shekels.

THANKSGIVING will be the next holiday.

COL. MARKHAM was not idle while away.

THE small boy got in his work on the firecrackers.

THE opening of the driving park was a howling success.

THE Fourth of July, and not a fire to report. We are degenerating.

ONE of these days our half-mile track will be the finest in the State.

MANY strangers visited Pasadena yesterday for the first time, and went away delighted. Come again.

THE fireworks at Stein's camp last night made a pretty spectacle to those in the valley. Thousands witnessed the display.

PASADENA and the surrounding country gave generous support to the driving park. All praise to those who initiated the undertaking.

COL. MARKHAM.

He Tells About His Trip to Washington.

COL. H. H. Markham arrived home from Washington Thursday evening. He was met at the Santa Fé station by a party of enthusiastic friends, who tendered him a most cordial reception.

Yesterday A TIMES reporter called on Col. Markham at his residence on South Pasadena avenue, where California's next Governor was found busy clearing away the correspondence that had accumulated during his absence. Some time was, however, generously accorded the reporter to enlighten him on the result of the eastern trip, which Southern Californians are naturally much interested in.

"You may say, to begin with," said Col. Markham, "that I'm very glad to be back in Pasadena. In Washington it was hot and in Chicago it was hotter. They tell me today is one of the warmest you have had here this season, but it's the first day for several weeks that I have not felt oppressed by the heat."

"Here's a palm-leaf fan," picking up a badly-dilapidated article of that description, "that I've worn out trying to keep cool since I left home. I return appreciating our climate more than ever."

"My trip was a pleasant one, but the work was hard at Washington. I was treated very liberally in the matter of the Soldiers' Home appropriation. I have been given sufficient to build a hospital, and there will be funds enough for a hospital kitchen and dining-room, another barrack, an extension of the water works, headquarters library, and a laundry, all separate buildings. Ten thousand dollars has been appropriated for the farm and improvement of the grounds, and $30,000 for maintenance. Work will be begun at the earliest possible date. The plans for the buildings are now completed."

"On the matter of the public buildings, I left everything in good shape so far as appropriations are concerned. I am confident that when the proper time arrives the appropriation will be made. I am confident that the entire California delegation are now in earnest and will do whatever they can to assist in the work. Gen. Vandever is doing all he possibly can, and I believe he will succeed."

BREVITIES.

The new school board organizes today.

City Council meets at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

C. S. Martin will leave for Catalina this afternoon.

A number of Pasadenaans will go to Catalina today.

A meeting of the Social Purity society will be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Dr. Kate S. Black.

The Los Angeles A.O.U.W. picnic at Devil's Gate yesterday was largely attended. Numerous games and sports were indulged in.

Nationalist Club.

Charlotte Perkins Stetson will lecture under the auspices of this society today evening, July 7th, in the vestry of the Universalist Church. The lecture will be a refutation of the constantly-reiterated argument that nothing can be done in the way of social reform until we alter human nature. It is hoped the attendance will be large.

C. F. Harris will address the regular meeting Sunday afternoon.

A Substantial Surprise.

About forty or fifty friends of Ruth B. Ridges, pastor of the Friends' Church, assembled at her house on North Raymond avenue, Tuesday evening, and surprised her with a large stock of groceries and a well-filled purse. Mrs. Ridges is greatly loved by her people, as was shown by the many tokens of this kind. L. B.

Sore-eyed Chickens.

Correspondent Santa Ana Blade:

I have had a little experience with sore-eyed chicks, the narration of which may be of benefit to others. I have had five chicks this season to exhibit sore eyes. The first was a setting hen, which I found with an eye very severely swollen, on the day she hatched. I was much exercised, and supposed that mother and chicks were doomed to go the way of all chicks so afflicted. But on a close examination I found deeply imbedded in the eye of the hen a seed of the foxtail grass. This I removed, and the eye was well in a day or two. I have had four other chicks (half grown) to be similarly afflicted, and each time I found the aforesaid foxtail seed. The last required a minute or two to be made appear, but I found it.

Now have little doubt but that half, if not a greater portion, of the sore eyes is so produced. I give my experience that others may profit by it.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Pasadena Celebrates in Grand Style.

A BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

The Procession—Oration by H. Z. Osborne—Races at the New Driving Park—A Full Report.

The Fourth was ushered in by the booming of cannon and the racket of thousands of firecrackers in the hands of hundreds of small boys. People got up earlier than usual and the streets presented a lively aspect long before 8 o'clock, the time set for the parade to start. The decorations along the line of march gave to the town a gala appearance. Flags and bunting adorned the fronts of nearly every store and place of business in the city, and above the City Hall and many private residences floated the Stars and Stripes.

The procession formed on South Fair Oaks avenue, right rousing on Vineyard street. Shortly after 8 o'clock the line of march was taken up in the following order.

Grand Marshal J. D. Glickrist, Chief Aid G. F. Peabody and staff, consisting of uniformed F. P., mounted Pasadenians, Band, Color Corps, leader.

Uniform Guards. Brass cannon drawn by twelve boys. Carriage containing Judge Magee, president of the day; H. Z. Osborne, orator of the day; Capt. Simpson and George F. Kernaghan.

Fire department. Butchers, mounted.

The Knights of Pythias, with their rich uniforms and mounted on stately steeds, presented a handsome appearance.

The Markham Guards were commanded by First Lieut. Hamilton. The boys marched better than ever. The entire fire apparatus was out, the hook-and-ladder truck being drawn by a span of horses hired for the occasion, the regular team not yet being in condition for service. The butchers numbered fourteen. The men wore sombreros, long white aprons and red sashes, while large plumes waved above their horses' heads.

The procession moved east on Vineyard street to Raymond avenue, north on Raymond avenue to Colorado street, west on Colorado street to De Lacy street, north on De Lacy street to Union street, east on Union street to Fair Oaks avenue, south on Fair Oaks avenue to Colorado street, east on Colorado street to Euclid avenue, counter-march to Mareno avenue, south on Mareno avenue to Tabernacle. At the conclusion of the parade Company B marched immediately to the Santa Fé station, and went to Los Angeles on the 9:30 train.

The exercises in the Tabernacle followed. The large auditorium was appropriately decorated. In the rear of the platform an excellent picture of Washington hung, between two immense flags draped at either side. In front of the speaker's desk there was a photograph of Grant, with a background of bunting. The front of the gallery was decked out with a number of small flags. On the platform were seated Judge Magee, president of the day; H. Z. Osborne of Los Angeles, Rev. William Ormiston, D. D., J. A. Buchanan, James McLaughlan, George F. Kernaghan, Councilmen Simpson, Clark, Banbury and McQuilling. Prof. Kyle and the members of the Polymnia quartette.

After music by the band, Rev. Dr. Ormiston offered prayer. Miss Peck sang a solo, after which the Declaration of Independence was read by J. A. Buchanan. Prof. Kyle sang "Columbia." President Magee then introduced H. Z. Osborne, who delivered an excellent oration, of which the words are reproduced.

Mr. Osborne's remarks were greeted by prolonged applause. When he had finished the Polymnia quartette sang "The Red, White and Blue." The audience afterward joined in singing "America," and the exercises were concluded by the benediction pronounced by Dr. Ormiston.

The races began at the new driving park at 1 o'clock. Thence Pasadenaans and visitors to the number of at least three thousand flocked over the Cross road, in street cars and conveyances of every description. The track was in excellent condition, and the grandstand, although only partially finished, is of imposing proportions and commands an extended view over the valley. The visitors were very favorably impressed with the grounds, and when all the contemplated improvements are added, the Driving Park Association will have good reason to feel proud of its property.

The sports opened with a mile exhibition bicycling, in which half a dozen local performers participated. No official time was taken.

The contestants in the "orange" race were Fred Roche, Westley Boyd, Roy B. Stewart and Allee Tyler. Boyd captured first prize, winning in 10 min. 44 sec.

G. W. Bell and W. C. Fuller ran a half mile. Bell took his own time and won in 3 min. 4 sec.

The trotting race for untrained horses had no better than a three-minute record had the following entries: Voss & Hoag's Prince, 6½; Frost's Vivian and Craig Bros.' Mark. Mark won the first heat in 1:41. Vivian won the two consecutive heats and the race respectively in 1:42 and 1:37, half-mile heats.

Trotting race No. 2, free for all horses, with no better than a 2:40 record was between C. S. Martin's Post Boy, Robert Vandervoort's Tom and H. C. Wyatt's Tom. Post Boy won two consecutive half-mile heats in fine style, the first in 1:38 and the second in 1:22. He was driven by George Greely. Tom came in second both times.

J. W. Payne's Frank and J. W. Banbury's Boy Archie had it out between them in the pacing race. Frank won two straight heats in 1:31 and 1:32 respectively.

Three pulls were necessary to decide the tug-of-war team. Pasadena's regular team that has been practicing under the direction of F. M. Summers was composed of Messrs. Frase, Thorpe, Griswold, Plank and the Meers. Mason. The first heat they polled a picked team of eight men (one more than was agreed upon) and were defeated by 7 inches. The next heat the regular team pulled seven men and won by 14 inches. The third heat went to the regular team by 21 inches. Their opponents were Meers, Towne, Wolf, Turner, McDaniel, White, Baker and Johnson.

There were eight starters in the half-mile dash for ranch horses. They were R. J. Bayly's Sallie, John Perret's Pat, Ed Hannan's unnamed, Alfred Ketchum's Mipey, Francis S. Hutchins's unnamed, Joseph Wolf's Miss, N. J. Mendosa's Ripley and S. H. Smith's Dandy. Ripley won in 56 seconds, with Sallie a good second.

In the half-mile running race, open to all, there were the following starters: John Perret's Fanny, George Greely's Walter, W. H. Syme's Claybank, and Mr. Barnhart's Wild Rose. At the quarter-mile turn Clayton Raymond, who rode Claybank, was thrown, his horse colliding with Fanny. It was feared the doughy and popular young jockey had been badly hurt, but his injuries proved to be nothing worse than a cut lip. He was soon on his feet again and ready for the fray. Fannie won the heat under protest in 55 seconds, Wild Rose second.
